Entry of horses

Required health tests and vaccinations:	./.
Quarantine period:	./.
Specimen Import Licence applied:	./.

Every athlete is obliged to deliver all necessary health certificates for the transport to the event or identification of the horses before they come into the stables:

a) in case of arrival from a EU-member-country, a health attestation for registered horses acc. to sample of Annex II to COUNCIL DIRECTIVE 2009/156/EC (see <http://eurlex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/PDF/?uri=CELEX:32009L0156&from=DE>) of the currently valid version will be necessary.

b) in case of arrival from a country not belonging to the EU, a health certificate for registered horses acc. to sample of Annex II (see https://www.bmel.de/DE/Tier/TierhandelTransport/Gesundheitsbescheinigungen/_texte/Pferde.html) of the decision of the commission 92/260/EG of the currently valid version will be necessary.

A certificate must be done in at least one official language of the country of destination and in one official language of the member country. The athlete must carry with him the original certificate, not a copy.

The Organiser sees to it that on the competition site, an official state veterinarian is present to issue the health certificates which are necessary for the transport of the horses to their destination abroad.

In case the OC has entrusted a forwarding agency, the latter is ready to assist regarding the required documents.

Furthermore, questions relating to health requirements for horses can be directed to the veterinary authorities in the country of origin or in Germany.

INJURY SURVEILLANCE

Horses participating in WAVE Events are subject to injury surveillance protocols; and in the event of fatality, a post mortem examination.

TRANSPORT OF HORSES

Horses must be fit to travel and be transported in suitable vehicles. Any government requirements for disease testing and control must be requested well in advance, to ensure that the horse is in compliance by the time of arrival at the border of the country where the event is taking place. Athletes, or their representatives, have the responsibility to comply with national legislation in both their country of origin and the host nation of the event. Where necessary athletes must contact local government authorities or veterinary advisors for information regarding animal health requirements and transport legislation. Within the European Union (EU), this includes EU Council Regulation (EC) No 1/2005 concerning the protection of animals during transport within the Member States of the EU.

HUMAN ANTI-DOPING

Athletes can be tested at any WED Event, by the WED or by other Anti-Doping Organisations with testing jurisdiction.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

INSURANCES AND NATIONAL REQUIREMENTS

Horse sport is associated with dangerous risks. The WED e.V. and the organizer of this tournaments shall NOT be liable for material and property damages or injuries of any kind whatsoever in the case of participants, owners, assistants and spectators who are in connection with the WED e. V. or the organiser.

The WED e.V. and the organizer expressly excludes all liability.

ATHLETES, OWNERS AND SUPPORT PERSONNEL

Personal Accident and Health Insurance

It is your responsibility as an Athlete/Owner/Support Personnel to ensure that you have adequate personal accident insurance in place to cover your participation at WED e.V. Events and in particular to insure against any personal injury or medical expenses arising from an accident, injury or illness which may occur at a WED e.V. Event.

Schedule
Pferd International Working Equitation Cup
WAVE European Championships Qualifier
May 21st-24th 2020

You should check with your National Federation to confirm if your National Federation's insurance policy (if any) covers personal accidents and/or illnesses which may occur when you are attending at/participating in WED e.V. Events.

If your National Federation does not have a personal accident/health insurance policy or if the National Federation's insurance policy does not cover personal accident or health claims, then you should obtain your own personal accident and health insurance policy to cover your attendance/participation at WED e.V. Events.

Personal Property Insurance

You should also ensure that you are insured against property loss, theft or damage which may occur at an WED e.V. Event.

Again, the advice is to check with your National Federation to confirm if they have an insurance policy in place which would cover you in case of such property loss, theft or damage. If not, then you should obtain your own personal property insurance to cover such situations.

ATHLETES AND OWNERS

Third Party Liability Insurance

As an athlete/owner you are personally responsible for damages to third parties caused by you, your employees, support personnel, your agents or your horses. You are, therefore, strongly advised to take out third-party liability insurance providing full coverage in relation to WED Events at home and abroad, and to keep the policy up to date. The WED e.V. and the Organiser will NOT be responsible for any damage caused to third parties by you, your employees, support personnel, your agents or your horses

Additional Liability Information

The organizer declines any liability for property or pecuniary damage which may happen to visitors, athletes, grooms and horse owners through slight negligence of the organizer, his delegates or his assistants. The OC is liable in case of intent, gross negligence as well as in case of injury to life, body or health and in further cases he is liable for compelling legal liability acc. to the legal requirements.

Horse Insurance

As an owner you should ensure that your Horses are adequately insured against any injuries or illnesses they may sustain while participating at a WED e.V. Event.

PROTESTS/APPEALS

To be valid, all Protests and Appeals must be made in writing and accompanied by a deposit of € 100.-.

DIPUTES

In the event of any discussion concerning the interpretation of the schedule (in translated languages), the English version will be decisive.

Schedule
